FOOTBALL LEAGUE

DIVISION II

Preston North End

v.

Millwall

MONDAY, 24th OCTOBER, 1966

Kick-off 7-30 p.m.

OUR OPPONENTS—MILLWALL

So soon after the visits of promoted Hull City and relegated Blackburn Rovers and Northampton Town to Deepdale, we welcome promoted Millwall, who have not been to Deepdale since 1934, when they were relegated after their first spell in Division II (six seasons) and North End returned to the First Division.

Thus the clubs have met only 13 times in the League despite both having been in Association Football for over 80 years. These games have resulted in four wins for Preston, two draws and seven defeats, by 24 goals to 29 — an average of four per game. Still well remembered is our 7-5 victory at the Den in October, 1930.

Founded in 1885 as Millwall Rovers, the team played on land near the Millwall docks in that part of London known as the Isle of Dogs, so called because Queen Elizabeth I, when in residence at Greenwich Palace, kept her hunting dogs there, across the River Thames. In 1890 the club moved to another ground in that area.

Turning professional in 1890, the club in 1893 changed its title to Millwall Athletic and the following year became founder members of the old Southern League, remaining in membership until 1920, when most of the clubs joined the newly formed League Division III (South). Promotion was gained in 1928.

Before this Millwall had once more moved by crossing the river in 1910 to New Cross, where they still play on a ground known as the Den. For three seasons it has been a veritable lions' den to visiting teams, for the Millwall lions were last defeated at home as long ago as April 20th, 1964. The run spans 53 matches.

North End have won and lost one F.A. Cup-tie with Millwall, both away games, and played in 1903 (1-4) and 1948 (2-1). In the national competition Millwall have reached the semi-final stage three times, in 1900, 1903 and 1937. One Cup-tie in the last named season set up Millwall's ground record of 48,327 spectators.
